ANNUAL NURSING EDUCATION CONFERENCE
THEME: Nursing Education at crossroads: Transcending change
04th – 05th of September 2019
Venue: Hilton Hotel, Sandton, Gauteng province

Themes:

This year the theme refers to nursing being at a crossroad as we enter the final year of the legacy programmes in nursing with only two institutions accredited to start training in 2020 at the time of this first announcement. Nursing finds itself in a constantly changing environment transforming the education and practice landscape as we know it and the profession must find ways to transcend the challenges that accompany change. In this spirit, delegates are given an open mandate for abstract submission.

Presenter Acceptance Policy

1. A signed Participant Response Form stating presenter's intention to present at the specified event must be completed to be placed in a scheduled session. The deadline for completion of the Participant Response Form will be strictly enforced.
2. Presenters will be notified of their scheduled session day and time after the Participant Response Form has been completed. Presenters are expected to present their submissions on the scheduled day(s) and time(s) indicated. Poster presenters can be scheduled for multiple days and times.
3. If a completed form is not received and the presenter is not registered by 15th August 2019, presentations will be removed from the programme.
4. Removal from the programme will result if these guidelines are not met.

Conference registration

All presenters must register and pay a registration fee for the conference. This can be done from April 2019. The early bird registration fee is payable by presenters for their registration for the conference. Details for registration will follow soon.

No registration will be confirmed without full prepayment by the 15th of August 2019. No person will be allowed in the conference venue without a paid-up registration.

ANNUAL NURSING EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Should your abstract be accepted, registration and full payment should be made by the 15th of August 2019. Should you fail to register and make full payment by this date you will not be included in the conference proceedings. Should you register before this date but fail to make full payment you will not be included in the conference proceedings.

The onus is on you to notify the office of your payment and ensure that you have confirmation from the office of your registration and payment and therefore inclusion in the programme.

Please note that the organisation of travel and accommodation is the responsibility of delegates
